Dear JETS Executive Editor,

Thank you for your information about my manuscript ""Bayah Natural Zeolites to Upgrade the Quality of Bio Crude Oil from Empty Fruit Bunch Pyrolysis". First, I want to explain my manuscript from STKSR 2019 until now (attachment).

This manuscript started from October 23, 2019 when the STSKR 2019 informed my manuscript to be recommended to be published in JETS. Then, I followed some process including two recommended reviewers until the STKSR said my manuscript had been transferred to the JETS Committee (November 8, 2020). Then I contacted the JETS Committee to know the status of my manuscript. In January 2021, I got an email from admin JETS that said my manuscript was in process to arrange for 2021. They planned my manuscript to be published in Volume 53 No 3, 2021 and will send an acceptance letter in February 2021.

Regarding your email yesterday, I think I recommend two reviewers like last time. Please inform us.

Best regards,

-Anton Irawan-
